Pirates on camp!

Last night we had a few problems with people coming on-site and after talking to a few people they visited a few tents and stole cd players, phones and money.

They called themselves the Pirates and made off with a bag full of loot. Pitxu Found them on the beach looking through their swag bag of goodies. He confronted them and was punched several times.

Pitxu Managed to hit them with his torch and escape a camp hero (ran away like a girl).

Miguel, Pitxu and Paul have been playing detective all day trying to discover whodunit!

After checking the stolen property a phone was discovered that does not belong to any of our campers, apparently belonging to the thieves. Police were called and are investigating.

Please be careful Pitxu May not be there to stop them next time.

If you see anyone who should not be here please contact a member of staff immediately.

Keep your personal belongings safe and make sure any valuables are locked in the Bank Holiday Holiday Bank.
