OUTER LIMITS

A STAR IS BORN

Outer Limits had a wonderful expedition in Blaxhal near Ipswich. We spent two days cooking, playing games and having fun together and we did not want to come back to campsite.

Some of the games were played late in the night and kept people laughing for a long while. We also discovered a new showbiz star when Elsa became Superelsa making jokes, dancing and imitating famous singers. This could be the birth of a Star. We'll keep an eye on her...

Kiss my ass!

LOST IN SPACE

Lost in a Film and locked in a Pub

The Lost in Space expedition to Castle Hedingham a film crew that was shooting a TV commercial for HSBC Bank. Some of them dared to approach the crew and had the chance to play as extras in the movie. So if you happen to see next commercial of the mentioned bank, look carefully as you could recognise some faces...

Meanwhile, the leaders Sabine, Svenjia, Cristine and Steve went to a local pub (The White Sheet) to have a beer and the didn't notice the bell sounding at 10:45 (who knows why). So the door was locked and they had to stay in the pub until 1:30 a.m. Luckily, they could have some beer while waiting. The day after the whole village went to the same pub to have lunch and they had a "happy ending".

THE MOONIES

Exorcism at Ashyldon

While having a nice expedition at Ashyldon, The Moonies had to exorcise the devil from Ian (the musician) that was visiting them on Wednesday night.

He showed the first signs when he began speaking in an unidentified language, but the confirmation came when his head turned around 360° and vomited green puke for over 20 minutes.

They made him lay on the ground and they chanted "Moooonnniiies" until the devil left Ian's body. Ian said he was not coming back again now we know why!!

TRANSLATION OF THE DAY

WE NEED SOME SUGGESTIONS FOR TRANSLATION OF THE DAY!

MARS ATTACKS

Rafting in Thriftwood

Mars Attack village went to Thriftwood on expedition and they found a river they had to cross and no bridge or boat to help them to do it. So some of the bravest Marsians made their own rafts to cross the troubled (dirty) water. The attempt was very satisfactory as they could pass to the other side, though some of the members of the crew fell in the nasty waters and they were very smelly for the rest of the day.

FROGGY! KIDNAPPED! AGAIN!

Once again Froggy has been kidnapped. He has had a year off as the trauma from 1999 was too much for his frail heart!

He decided to come back to help Anne Kinnen out with her and 'Chucky' Hengens' Luxembourg group. He survived expedition but then disappeared during the Instructors Party, a ransom note and photo was left behind.

"MAKE 8 SLICES OF TOAST OR FROGGY WILL BE TOAST!"

The police have said they are looking for a toast lover or someone from camp who goes to breakfast too much and eats lots of toast! Please help with the enquiry if you can!

Were you right???
