MYSTERY KISSER

To discover the mystery kisser the other Turkish girl, who wishes to remain anonymous but is not Riella, will be holding a Cinderella party tonight in her village. She will kiss everyone in the camp with her eyes closed to try and discover who the mystery kisser is. If this fails she will be kissing everyone as they leave tomorrow.

LAST NIGHT BLUES!

It is so sad that this is the last night! This is why we are producing this sixth newsletter. We did want to produce one every day but there were not enough stories that we could print. We hope you enjoyed the bits we did print and thanks to all those who contributed. Anyone who has any further stories please email david@internationalcamp.co.uk and they will be put on the internet site.

Talking of the website please visit www.internationalcamp.co.uk and check out the guest book and other areas to keep up to date with what is happening next year.

Bye for now, see you all soon!

David
