Can you guess who these are?

Christmas and New Year

Christmas and New Year in two days!

Great atmosphere at both parties and everyone enjoyed themselves.

Santa hats and tinsel were everywhere at the Christmas Party, and it had a great feeling of being at a real Christmas party.

The new years party was even better, and many people said they had a feeling of seeing in the New Year, all that was missing was fireworks and champagne.

The Spanish group ate 12 grapes at each chime of Big Ben and everyone kissed and hugged and sang Auld Lang Syne.

Maybe we should do this every year as it was so great!?!

Whodunit still unsolved!

There is still a chance to win a copy of the great game Travel Cluedo, as the Whodunit puzzle is still unsolved.

If you know whodunit, how, where and why then post your answers in one of the post boxes around camp.

There are three prizes available.

Good luck.

Would like to meet...

Two beautiful young Spanish chicas wish to meet a man that is easy to talk to, clear eyes, sexy, money, own tent, interesting, handsome, funny, romantic and who likes to give surprises and especially wants to have a "good time"!
